Ms Looi Ming Ming
Partner
Elden Law LLP

Ming began her career with the specialised Projects & Infrastructure practice group at Rajah & Tann LLP. Ming is now with Eldan Law LLP with a broad practice across varied sectors, with particular interest in construction, infrastructure, professional negligence and tax. Alongside her international arbitration and litigation practice as lead counsel and as independent adjudicator, Ming also regularly advises on contract documentation, joint venture agreements and concession agreements, bringing focused insights from her dispute resolution experience.

Ming is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb). Ming is also an Accredited Director with the Singapore Institute of Directors (SID). Ming serves as a committee member of the Construction Adjudicator Accreditation Committee (CAAC) of the Singapore Mediation Centre (SMC), overseeing the selection and assessment of the adjudicator panel. Ming is the editor of the SMC CAAC newsletter, a forum for sharing perspectives and experiences and a source of legal updates for busy practitioners. Since 2018, Ming has also served on the Law Reform Committee, Building & Construction Sub-Committee, proposing law reform and practice guidelines in connection with the construction industry.

Ming is a perfectionist, competitive by nature, and loves to win. Clients appreciate her impeccable attention to detail all while never losing sight of the bigger picture.

Synopsis

Entering into and/or managing contracts are a daily occurrence for professionals across sectors. Hopefully, going to 'war' on such contracts does not happen so often. But when a dispute does arise, you want to make sure that you know how to dodge the bullets and how to best protect your commercial interests.

This webinar covers recent construction law Court cases in Singapore to examine potential areas of dispute between the parties and to analyse how the Courts approach these issues. Recent decisions on adjudication proceedings under the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 2004 as well as general construction law decisions will be covered.

The webinar will recap fundamental legal principles as well as provide practical guidance in relation to breaches of contract, damages, termination and dispute resolution generally. From these case updates, participants will keep abreast of recent developments in the construction law arena and also develop confidence on legal jargon and obtain pragmatic tips to best achieve business aims.
